

LUTHERAN LAY FELLOWSHIP
OF THE
WASHINGTON, DC, METROPOLITAN AREA

LLF Scholarship Committee

SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

GENERAL -- The Lutheran Lay Fellowship of the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area (LLF) is pleased to announce the availability of its yearly scholarship. A brochure presenting scholarship details may be obtained from our website at www.LutheranLayFellowship.org

AWARD -- This year's scholarship award is $2,000. Consideration for the award will be weighted toward a needy, promising applicant planning to enter a career which would enable him/her to help those who are in need of spiritual and/or material assistance either at home or abroad.

ELIGIBILITY FOR THIS SCHOLARSHIP

- An applicant must be a current active member of a Lutheran congregation located in the Washington, DC, Metropolitan Area.
- An applicant must be accepted by or already attending, on a full-time basis, a college, university or seminary. Also, consideration will be weighted toward (but not exclusively so) to applicants attending a Lutheran college, university or seminary.
- No applicant will be granted more than one award.

APPLICATION -- The application process is informal; however, information required of an applicant is specified in the brochure. This year, application is via E-mail; no paper applications will be accepted.

APPLICATION DEADLINE -- April 15, 2017